VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c., &c.

To all to whom these presents shall come,—GREETING.

GEO. A. WALKEM, } WHEREAS by an Indenture Attorney-General. bearing date the 21st day of April, 1868, made between Joseph William Trutch, Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, acting on behalf of the Government, of the one part, and William P. Barry, therein described, of the other part, the said Joseph William Trutch, so acting as aforesaid, in consideration of the rents, covenants, and conditions therein reserved and contained, granted unto the said William P. Barry license and authority to collect certain tolls on passengers, animals, and goods passing over Bridge No. 1, as shown on the plan drawn on the Indenture now under recital, for a period of three years from the 25th day of March, 1868:

And whereas the said License or Charter was renewed for the term of three years from the 24th day of March, 1871:

And whereas by "The Toll Charter Act, 1871," the Governor in Council is empowered, in Her Majesty's name, under the Public Seal of the Colony, to grant to any person or persons, upon such terms as he may think fit, Charters for the collection of Tolls as therein mentioned:

And whereas the Government of British Columbia have agreed to grant a further renewal of the said license or charter to the said William P. Barry, for the term of four years from the twenty-fourth day of March, 1874:

And whereas the agreement made between the said Government and the said William P. Barry is embodied in this Our Royal Charter:

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW YE, that We, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, and in pursuance of the power vested in Us by the Act hereinbefore in part recited, DO ORDAIN, GRANT, AND DECLARE that the said William P. Barry, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall have full power, liberty, license, and authority to ask, assess, levy, and collect from all persons whomsoever, by way of toll, the sums following, that is to say—

For every pound, avoirdupois, of goods, wares, or merchandise, other than those herein excepted or provided for, which shall respectively be carried over or across the said Bridge No. 1, the sum of.....  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1 cent per lb.

For every passenger, other than those hereinafter excepted, so as aforesaid crossing or carried, the sum of.....  $12\frac{1}{2}$  cents. per head

And for every pig, sheep, calf, or goat other than those hereinafter excepted, so taken, crossing, or carried, the sum of.....  $12\frac{1}{2}$  cents.

And for every horse, ass, mule, ox, or cow, other than those hereinafter excepted or provided for, so taken, crossing, or carried as aforesaid, the sum of..... 50 cents.

And for every loaded horse, ass, or mule, other than those hereinafter excepted or provided for, so taken, crossing, or carried (including such load) the sum of..... 1 dollar.

To have, hold, and enjoy the tolls, rights, and privileges hereby granted, for the space of four years, from the Twenty-fourth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, subject, nevertheless, to all and singular the rents, provisoes, conditions, and stipulations of these presents. Provided, nevertheless, that such tolls shall not be demanded or payable from, by, or upon passengers, goods, chattels, vehicles, or animals for the time being belonging to or employed in the service of the Government. Provided, that the tolls, privileges, and remedies on the part of and under or by virtue of these presents accorded, are conferred upon this express condition: that on any failure of the said William P. Barry, his executors, administrators, and assigns, during the said term of four years (except while prevented by inevitable accident or repairs), well and substantially to maintain and keep in repair the said No. 1 and No. 2 Bridges, and their approaches, and the trail between the said Bridges, marked No. 1 and 2 respectively on the plan drawn hereon, over the South and North branches of Quesnelle River, and for a distance of one mile each way beyond each of the said Bridges, in perfect order and repair, to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, or other Officer in that behalf appointed, and in compliance with any requisition of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, or other Officer as aforesaid, or on failure of the said William P. Barry, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to pay and perform all or any part of the several rents, provisoes, conditions, and stipulations in these presents prescribed, then upon notice to that effect, and any default of the said William P. Barry, his executors, administrators, or assigns, thirty days thereafter to comply with the requirements of such notice, of which default such Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall be sole judge, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding, then and in any such case all and singular such tolls, privileges, and powers hereby granted shall ipso facto be forfeited, and revert to the use of Us, Our heirs and successors absolutely; and such moneys shall be deemed and accounted for as part of the public revenue; and the powers, remedies, and privileges herein contained may thereupon be exercised by and on behalf of Us, Our heirs and successors.

None of the said tolls shall be demandable whenever, during the said term, the said bridges and approaches, or the said five and a half miles of trail, or any part thereof respectively, whether from accident or otherwise shall, in the opinion of the said Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, or other Officer as aforesaid, expressed in a written notice, be in a condition unfit or dangerous for public traffic. Provided, that the said William P. Barry shall pay to Us, Our heirs and successors, an annual rent of One Hundred Dollars, in equal quarterly payments of Twenty-five Dollars each, in advance, on each of the usual quarter days; such payments to be made to the Assistant Commissioner of Lands and Works, at Richfield. Provided, that the said William P. Barry shall, during the term of four years, keep the said Bridges and five miles and a half of trail above mentioned in perfect order and repair. Provided, that the said William P. Barry, his executors or administrators, shall not assign these presents, or the tolls, or privileges hereby conferred, or any part thereof respectively, without the consent in writing of the said Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works thereto first had and obtained. Provided, that the said William P. Barry, his executors, administrators, or assigns shall, at the expiration of four years, or other sooner determination of the said term, yield up quiet and peaceable possession of the rights, tolls, and privileges, and the said two Bridges, and the trails and all improvements thereto, in a good state of repair.

Every notice required or authorized, or requisition under these presents, shall mean a notice or requisition in writing, under the hand of the said Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, or other Officer as aforesaid, and affixed to some conspicuous part of either of the said Bridges Nos. 1 and 2, or approaches; and every such notice shall be good and sufficient notice for all purposes whatsoever, of all matters and things therein contained, and all persons mentioned or referred to therein.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Public Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed: WITNESS, the Honorable JOSEPH WILLIAM TRUTCH, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this Eighteenth day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and in the thirty-sixth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

JOHN ASH,
Provincial Secretary.
